

Photos Courtesy Orange School District

SERVING SCIENCE — Oakwood Avenue School student L'Nai Bryant, left, presents her gum-pop experiment while, right, Rosa Parks seventh-grader Sadja Montesir describes her research on molds during the Orange School District's annual science fair June 8 at the Park Avenue School. Projects from each of the district's schools were presented during an exhibition in the gymnasium.